SATURDAY 1 JULY, 6PM-4AM

SUGGESTED ITINERARY: HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE OFFICIAL AND ASSOCIATE PROGRAMME

- From 4-6pm, join us for cocktails & the UK Premiere of new VR installations by Christian Lemmerz and Paul McCarthy at Second Home (E1 5JL).
- Check the video installation by Do Ho Suh at Christ Church Spitalfields (E1 6LY) and stop for a drink at the legendary Golden Heart (E1 6LZ) pub where Daata Editions present a pioneering selection of video artworks.
- Spot works from Jake & Dinos Chapman displayed in the stunning interior of Dennis Severs' House (E1 6BX).
- Immerse yourself in Anne Hardy's FIELD work at Nicholls & Clarke Showrooms (E1 6PG).
- Take a detour by Braithwaite Street Bridge to witness kissing lovers under the Dha, a cradle for courting couples by Charles Avery (E1 6GJ).
- Stop by Bishopsgate Institute (EC2M 4QH) to learn more about London's radical and rebellious past from their historic archives and create your own pamphlet; or take part in a posters campaign workshop at Ace Hotel (E1 6JQ).
- Discover Candida Powell-Williams' interactive installation inspired by the fascinating story of Devonshire Square (EC2M 4YE), originally host to the East India Trading Company in the 19th century with special performances at 7pm and 9pm.
- Pass by the mural at Middlesex Street Estate (E1 7EB), an Art Night Legacy project created by Gunes Terkol with local residents, have a snack at Boca Empanadas and spot Terkol's banners at Cass University (EC1Y 8TZ)
- Explore a science fiction version of The White Chapel Building (E1 8DX) and its impressive atrium - with a new virtual reality video installation by Lawrence Lek.
- At Whitechapel Gallery (E1 7QX), Benedict Drew turns his multimedia installation into a musical score for a live, durational improvisation from 6pm-11.30pm.
- From 10pm-4am Curzon Aldgate will run a Film Night curated by Frieze of artists films and documentaries that find the extraordinary in the everyday.
- While in Aldgate, stop for a bite and dive into the East End's boxing history, re-enacted in a site-specific installation and a playful boxing ring at the Dog & Truck Public House (E1 1LX).

- Make your way to Pennington Street Warehouse at London Dock (E98 1XY) and discover Jake & Dinos Chapman's new video installation inspired by an epic poem (you might encounter Jake Chapman playing live with his band, if you come from 10pm - 11pm).

- Cross to the Garden of Virtual Utopias at Thomas More Square (E1W 1YW) and make your way to St. Katharine Docks (E1W 1LA) for a chance to meet with locals from Charles Avery's imaginary Island and to enjoy a custom-made egg cocktail at the Egg Eating Egret bar.

- Experience SPACE FILM (1970) re-staged in its original location, capturing the mood of the '60s, featuring artists Bridget Riley, Peter Sedgley, Henry Moore who set up SPACE at the iconic St. Katharine Docks site in 1968 (E1W 1YL).

- Near Tower Hill, St Olave Church (EC3R 7NB) is transformed into an immersive environment of sculptural installation and sound with "rock-speakers" broadcasting live mixes by on-site sound artists and DJs.

- Make your way to the secret Masonic Temple at Andaz Hotel (EC2M 7QN) for a late night encounter with Aleister Crowley, an English occultist, ceremonial magician and poet in a video installation by Lindsay Seers. The project is on view from 6pm - 4am, with entry every 30 minutes but we encourage late attendance to avoid queues.

- The most intrepid visitors can then enjoy a late night snack and live graffiti until 12am at Dinerama (EC2A 3EJ) and take part in a mass dance performance from artist Melanie Manchot in Exchange Square Broadgate (EC2M 2RH), in a silent disco style, from 10pm to 4am (see visitors' guide for full schedule).

- For those who make it through the night, a survivors' breakfast will await at Rich Mix (E1 6LA) from 4.30am, all set within the Dacha - a pop up installation modelled on a Russian summer house of 1917.
